

ST MARYS CITY

MARYLAND

Celebrate America 250

Walk where the seeds of religious freedom & early American life were planted

Celebrating
250
Years of
Religious Freedom
 Religious Freedom
ALLIANCE COUNCIL

Saturday, April 18, 2026 from 10 am - 2 pm

Historic St. Mary City Maryland

Visitors Center, 18751 Hogaboom Lane

Lexington Park, MD 20653

Register for $18 by April 10th & get free lunch

Limited scholarships Available

Hear religious freedom experts discuss why religious freedom matters today

Explore how America's first religious freedom law came to be, who it protected, and the origins of the phrase "free exercise of religion."

Learn how early Maryland colonists of different faiths lived and worked together, what religious freedom meant to them, and why it remains essential to protect it today.

Also enjoy living history

- Personalized History Tour of St Mary's City
- Living history exhibits (ship, tavern, hamlet)
- Reconstructed State House, chapel, and meeting house
- Real-time archaeology at early settlement sites
- 3+ miles of scenic walking trails and river views
- Colonial farm life with heritage crops and animals

Register Today

www.rfacouncil.org/maryland